Parents / Carers,

The last 2 weeks have been very special at Carleton Park with the children taking part in a number of different festive activities. The choir sang in Pontefract town centre, Year 5 watched a Carleton High School pantomime, all pupils enjoyed our Christmas Fayre, our school council decorated the Christmas tree, Year 3 played their ukuleles to parents, 2 very lucky Year 4 children helped judge the Pontefract Christmas window competition and all children wore Christmas jumpers and enjoyed a Christmas dinner!

Monday Assembly

On Monday I will be announcing to the children the end of term attendance winners – this is a class award, with the prize being a trip to the cinema in Pontefract Library.

A member of our Parent Council will be in attendance to present the class who raised the most money in our Christmas Fayre with a very special prize and we will also be handing out books for our reading raffle winners!

Whole School Pantomime

As a special treat, we have booked in a pantomime performance for all our pupils on Monday 13th December, the performance will begin at 2pm and will be a fantastic whole school experience for our children!

Tombola – Tuesday from 2:30pm – 4pm

On Tuesday 14th December between 2:30pm – 4pm the Tombola will take place. This will be held from the staffroom fire doors by members of the Parent Council.

£1 for 5 tickets 😊

Have a great weekend everyone and see you all Monday 😊
